

Easter Quiz

Muodostakaa 2–4 hengen joukkueet. Vastatkaa kysymyksiin. Käyttäkää nettiä apuna.

1. Which Russian jewellery firm is famous for beautiful jewel-encrusted eggs?
2. Where is Easter Island? Which country does it belong to?
3. Which bird lays the largest eggs?
 - a) the ostrich
 - b) the eagle
 - c) the swan
4. How do you say “Easter” in these languages: Italian, German, Hungarian and Norwegian?
5. Which animal brings the Easter eggs in Australia?
 - a) a koala
 - b) a kangaroo
 - c) a bilby
6. What is the “Easter egg roll”?
 - a) a sandwich filled with a boiled egg
 - b) a traditional Easter dessert
 - c) a traditional game played on Easter Monday
7. How is the White House connected to Easter?
 - a) The president of the United States gives an important speech every Easter.
 - b) The president of the United States plays a traditional Easter game with children.
 - c) There is a huge Easter egg in front of the White House.
8. On what street in New York City does the famous Easter parade take place?
 - a) on Fifth Avenue
 - b) on Broadway
 - c) on 42nd Street
9. The most popular Easter candy in the USA is:
 - a) chocolate bunnies
 - b) jelly beans
 - c) marshmallow peeps.
10. In France the traditional chocolate candy is not a chocolate bunny but
 - a) a chocolate Eiffel tower
 - b) a chocolate bell
 - c) a chocolate cross.

Easter Quiz

KEY

1. Fabergé
2. In the southeastern Pacific Ocean. It belongs to Chile.
3. a) the ostrich
4. Italian: Pasqua; German: Ostern; Hungarian: húsvét; Norwegian: påske
5. c) a bilby (pikkupussikaniini)
6. c) a traditional game played on Easter Monday
7. b) The president of the United States plays a traditional Easter game with children.
8. a) on Fifth Avenue
9. c) marshmallow peeps
10. b) a chocolate bell